Top Loader

Top loaders are in good condition, however there seems to be alot of plastic shavings inside the loaders and could potentially ruin sports cards. But, they are still a good buy. Thanks!

Use the dropdown to choose the size of toploader or penny sleeves that you'd like to purchase. Choose your quantity, and then click "Add to Cart." Then you'll be able to choose an additional size toploader or penny sleeves pack following this same process.

The dropdown shows the maximum thickness of a card that the toploaders will hold along with how many toploaders come in a pack. Penny Sleeves are in packs of 100 and you have a choice of sleeves for standard thickness cards or for thick cards.

For example, "BCW 59 point 1.5 millimeter 25 count package" means that it's BCW brand, package of 25 holders with each holder fitting cards that are maximum 1.5 millimeters in thickness. The 1.5 millimeters is also expressed in a point system being 59 points in this case. For reference a standard trading card is 20 points in thickness.

Fantastic seller!!! Package was held up enroute and they immediately sent an inquiry to post office to get the issue resolved. They were willing to refund me if the post office couldn't fix the situation. It did eventually show up, Packaged securely and looking exactly as advertised. It's hard to find good customer service these days, and they stepped up to help me with a problem that didn't have anything to do with them! Definitely recommend, great experience! 🙌

TOP FAVORABLE REVIEW

BCW hard plastic card holders with penny sleeves.

What a great buy on a top quality product! If you collect any type of cards then these are a great yet inexpensive investment to keep your collecting protected. I ordered the 100 holder set with the sleeves. Was so happy with the quality I ordered 100 more the next day.

Excellent Card Protectors for Shipping and Storage!

These things are super thick and perfect for shipping and storage, while also being reasonably cheap, even in small bulk quantities, such as, 100 per purchase. Bear in mind that each set of 25 is 1 Box of Rigid/Hard Plastic Sleeves. So, if you order 100, then it'll come with 4 boxes. Luckily, I found me a really cool person who sells them in lots of 100 and includes an addition 100 Soft Sleeves, as well!! Really great deal for a great product by BCW!

Quick easy affordable!

I've bought from quite a few small shops on here for toploaders and sleeves and this one is by far the most reliable for bulk. Every time I order it's here within the week and ready for card storage! And one of the few I've found with not as messed up toploaders

Funko Pop! Scorbunny Games Pokemon 922 PSA 9 Mint FASC (From a Sealed Case) (#126301528786)

u****f (4) • Past year

Item was exactly what was advertised. It was sent as soon as possible and I'm extremely happy with the delivery time. The book was overly wrapped in bubble wrap and was very protected. Great shipping rates. I feel other sellers are overcharging and making a profit off of shipping, but not this seller. Very fair prices and shipping fees. I would definitely buy from this dealer, again.

Great product, fair price, highly recommend.

I have converted my Pokemon card collection from 20pt standard holders to BCW 59pt toploaders. I found the BCW 59pt toploaders to be better quality and more convenient to use, especially with penny sleeves.

Perfect for Allen & Ginter relics

Bought these for my A&G boxes coming in, they fit my relics from last year perfectly however they aren't thick enough for Leather and Lumber or Donruss relics. My Topps Xmas fit nicely but not manufactured Topps relics.

Great product, fair price, highly recommend.

I have converted my Pokemon card collection from 20pt standard holders to BCW 59pt toploaders. I found the BCW 59pt toploaders to be better quality and more convenient to use, especially with penny sleeves.

Top Loader
Top loaders are in good condition, however there seems to be alot of plastic shavings inside the loaders and could potentially ruin sports cards. But, they are still a good buy. Thanks!

Item description from the seller standard 3x4 top loading card holders are made of high-quality, rigid PVC. These top loading holders are some of the most popular rigid individual card holders in the collectible card industry. Use this product to protect, store or display collectible baseball cards, football cards, hockey cards, or other Trading cards like Magic the gathering, pokémon, yugioh, and others.

WHAT IS INCLUDED - 100 toploaders designed to hold standard thickness cards (20pt)

PROTECT YOUR COLLECTION - toploaders are the standard for protecting your sports cards, gaming cards and other collectible cards

DESIGNED TO PROTECT YOUR CARDS - Less flexible than semi-rigids and more flexible than magnetic card holders. The give provides additional protection for cards if dropped.

DIMENSIONS AND CLARITY - Standard sized (length and width) of 3x4 (outer dimensions - fits items that are slightly smaller). Toploaders are clear with a slight blue tinge

RANGE OF THICKNESSES AVAILABLE - has standard sized toploaders and a range of toploaders for cards of different thicknesses.

Top Loader

Top loaders are in good condition, however there seems to be alot of plastic shavings inside the loaders and could potentially ruin sports cards. But, they are still a good buy. Thanks!

TOP FAVORABLE REVIEW

Perfect!

These are perfect, wouldn't even consider buying another brand. I use these specifically to display ACEO/ATC cards, and I mount them in the wall with small command strips. Minimal glare. Several of my friends also use these for their magic cards.

Great value with this product.

In my opinion these toploaders are the same quality as the standard toploaders BCW sells. Just with a little more buffing. I've only been 1/4 of the way through the case and have had multiple cracked or chipped (not so PREMIUM) toploaders. On the value side it is a good deal.

BCW hard plastic card holders with penny sleeves.

What a great buy on a top quality product! If you collect any type of cards then these are a great yet inexpensive investment to keep your collecting protected. I ordered the 100 holder set with the sleeves. Was so happy with the quality I ordered 100 more the next day.

Excellent Card Protectors for Shipping and Storage!

These things are super thick and perfect for shipping and storage, while also being reasonably cheap, even in small bulk quantities, such as, 100 per purchase. Bear in mind that each set of 25 is 1 Box of Rigid/Hard Plastic Sleeves. So, if you order 100, then it'll come with 4 boxes. Luckily, I found me a really cool person who sells them in lots of 100 and includes an addition 100 Soft Sleeves, as well! Really great deal for a great product by BCW!

Quick easy affordable!

I've bought from quite a few small shops on here for toploaders and sleeves and this one is by far the most reliable for bulk. Every time I order it's here within the week and ready for card storage! And one of the few I've found with not as messed up toploaders

Quality product

If possible, an overhead or "top" view of the "toploader" would help visually so that the buyer could get a better idea that a certain card would fit. Actual "mm" size is good, but the added view would be very helpful especially when trying to figure out if a thicker card, such as a jersey or patch card, would fit.

Top Loader

Top loaders are in good condition, however there seems to be alot of plastic shavings inside the loaders and could potentially ruin sports cards. But, they are still a good buy. Thanks!
